At last the Democracy of this State have withdrawn Colonel McCook from the canvass. Ill-health is the alleged reason, but most probably his constituents are sicker than he is. There has a rumor been started that the Colonel is insane. While discrediting the report, it yet seems peculiarly proper for a crazy man to lead the Democratic party.

We are glad to observe that our neighbors of the Telegraph are able to appreciate what the people want-when someone else shows it to them. Have just received a large lot of Children's Carriages, Toy Carts, Rocking Horses, Doll Cabs, and Ladies' and Gents' Satchels and Baskets. A HISTORY OF HIS BUSINESS FOR THE past ten months must convince all that he is the Autocrat of Picture men. Having worked hard for nearly thirty years to secure an honorable living, he well knows how to appreciate, in all kinds of business, good work and low prices. In fact, from his early boyhood he has favored

FAZE

Frames all kinds of Pictures, from the Card Pho-ograph to the largest sized Steel Plate, at less figures than any other man in Lake county.

FAZE

Makes all kinds of Tin Types, large or small, at prices below any other room in Northern Ohio; and here let me say that six years' experience in copying and handling old pictures, has convinced me that the Tin Type, or Ambrotype, (which is simply another name,) is the most durable and finest outlined picture made.

FAZE

Will make large Photographs and finish them up in India luk at about the same prices commonly charged for the plain Photograph. Having engaged the services of

MR. S. B. SHOEMAKER,

FAZE

Uses every one with respect, whether white or black, rich or poor, in the city or from the coun-try, and considers one man's money worth just as much as another's.

FAZE

Keeps a full stock of first quality French Glass, and, excepting by request, uses nothing else in all his framing.

FAZE Makes SIX LARGE PICTURES, each in an 8x10 inch Rose and Gilt frame, of different members of a taxnily, for the low sum of or a part of them may be copies from old pictures.

At these prices all are enabled to decorate the calls of their houses with beautiful rememorances of those who have passed away, thus making home inviting and pleasant to their children and friends.

FAZE

Has, for the especial benefit of his patrons, added to his Rooms one of Hallet & Dav is' best Planes, and cordially invites all talented in that line to give him a call and assist in driving away dulf
